FIRE ON SATURDAY MORNING -A small frame house, located on the corner of Third and Western-row, took fire on Saturday morn-ing about five o'clock, and rapidly burnt to the ground. At least a dozen families were turned out of their homes by the flames, and turned out of their homes by the fiames, and the slarm was not given until one of the occupants went up to the George-street Enginehouse and made the fact known.

From this the people of the city may see the benefit te be derived from the system of fire alarm telegraph, which has just been on exhibition at the Council Chamber. A woman, at least fifty years of age, without shoes or stockings to her feet, and clad only in the dress in which she had retired to rest, rushed out into the storm of snow and rain of Saturday morning and gave the alarm at the engine-house. ing and gave the alarm at the engine-house. It is true that eases of this kind do not often occur, but they do sometimes, and under other circumstances the tardiness of the fire-men might have been of serious consequence.

The loss in the present instance will probably reach $500, upon which there was no insurance. The property destroyed belonged to a Mrs. Huffner, and although the adjoining buildings were composed of wood, they escaped serious damage.

ARREST FOR KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE.

ARREST FOR KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE. A man named Issac Frost, day before yesterday, caused a warrant to be issued for the arrest of a woman named Annie Richmond, who he accused of keeping a disorderly house on Race-street, near Fifth. A party of the Mayor's police went to the establishment, day before yesterday, and arrested the proprietress, together with eight of her boarders, all of whom were taken before Judge Lowe, and gave bonds for their appearance this morning before the Police Court. The ewner of the building was also arrested and held to bail in the sum of two hundred dollars for his apthe sum of two hundred dollars for his apperance at the same time.

A morning cotemporasy considerably given, of late, to jesting, announces that they have known the owner of the house for "a great number of years, and have no hasitation in saying that he was totally ignorant of the character of the person to whom he rented the premises." This reminds us of the story of a man in the North who had never heard of John Brown, and betrays a lack of knowledge of what is taking place in the external world, which, we are sure, cannot be found outside of the family to which he belonged. As our cotemporary stigmatizes the house as "notorious," we conclude that they intended the above paragraph as a joke, or else that a member of this same family has become a contributor to its columns.

POLICE COURT .- The number of cases before the Police Court, on Saturday morning, amounted to twenty-two. They were principally unimportant, but one or two seem to be worthy of notice. worthy of notice.

Caroline Alexander, a kind of Ethiopian Penthesilis, who a few days ago was arrested for assaulting, with a hatchet, a stalwart individual of her own color, named Ireland, was dismissed. From the testimony, Judge Lowe was induced to believe that she had been acting entirely in self-defense, and for this reason made the disposition of the case which we have recorded above.

Henry Holtcamp, who on Friday morning

Henry Holtcamp, who on Friday morning appeared before 'Equire Bell to urge a suit of assault and battery against James Franklin, a policeman, whom, be said, foreibly turned his horses and wagon off the track of the Cin-cinnati Street Railroad Company, on Western-row, was fined three dollars and costs for the truction of said track.

A man named David Falkner was sentenced to six months' imprisonment in the County Jail for stealing a sheep belonging to Mr. Fitzgerald, of this city.

A COUPLE OF CINCINNATIANS ARRESTED IN St. Louis for Seduction.—A couple of men, named Losh and William Canfield, were arrested in St. Louis one day last week, at the request of Captain Wilson, Chief of the Police of this city, upon a charge of seduction. Losh appears to be the guilty party, having, under promise of marriage, succeeded first in winning the affection of a young girl residing here, and then in dishonoring her; but what connection Canfield has with the case, we have been unable to learn. The father of the girl followed the parties to St. Louis, where they were arrested. They returned to this city, and it is said that Losh has agreed to marry, rather, as he said, "than have any trouble about the matter." The case, from what we have heard of it, seems to be one of the most heartless, if degrees of heartlessness can be A COUPLE OF CINCINNATIANS ABBRESTED IN heartless, if degrees of heartlessness can be manifested in affairs of this nature, and such a result as that which we have recorded, although it may satisfy those who are inter-rested, cannot be regarded as the best dispo-sition that could have been made of it.

TREMENDOUS ENTERPRISE — SPECIAL DIS-PATCHES AND OLD NEWS.—Yesterday's Enquirer contains about half a column of altogether contains about half a column of altogother unimportant intelligence as a special telegraph dispatch, the only interesting item of which—the proposed mail route between Sacramento and St. Louis—we found in our mails and clipped out on Friday last.

What tremendous enterprise our Vine-street neighbor has shown! It must have engaged a mail express to convey its dispatches from St. Louis. Perhaps, however, as they make it a point never to insert mail matter in their paper until it is old enough to be forgotten, they desire to preserve consistency by publishing dispatches about three days after the information conveyed has been printed in the news columns of their cotemporaries.

DEDICATION OF BASEMENT OF TRINITY CHURCH. DEDICATION OF BASEMENT OF TRINITY CHURCH.
The dedicatory exercises of the basement of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, on Ninth-street, between Race and Elm, took place yesterday. They were opened in the morning at eleven o'clock, by a sermon by Rev. B. W. Clark, D. D., editor of the Ladies' Repository, the accompanying services being performed by Rev. T. A. Morris, senior Bishop of the M. E. Church. They were continued in the afternoon by the Sabbath school, a social reunion, which was addressed by Rev Mr.
Allen, President of the Wesleyan Female College, and the regular evening services, at lege, and the regular evening services, at which the pastor, Rev. W. H. Sutherland, delivered quite an eloquent discourse.

PRISON, JAIL AND HOSPITAL .- In the City Prison, at the close of the week, there were 122 prisoners, (77 of them females,) against 166 the previous week. During the week 53 prisoners were discharged.
In the County Jail there were 7 lunaties;

In the County Jail there were 7 lunatios; 21 females; 2 on bread and water; 13 on chain-gang; 71 in main jail—114 in all, against 122 the week previous.

At the Commercial [Hospital 32 persons were admitted during the week; 22 discharged; 1 born, and 1 died—Joseph Schastian.

In the Hospital last evening 156 patients were under treatment, against 146 the previous

At the close of the past week there was not a single case of small-pox in the Pest-house.

PERSONAL .- Hon. R. W. Johnson, U. S Senator from Arkansas, who, it is said, is about to fight a duel with Colonel Hindman, of that State, was yesterday at the Spencer

Major Henry was at the same hotel, having in charge two orphan boys, eight and ten years old, whose parents und relatives were all mur-dered on the Plains by the Indians, about two months ago, and whom he intends to con-vey, by Government direction, to Arkansas, where they have some friends.

FINALE OF THE LATE NINTH-STREET SHOOT-ING APPRAY.—Eugene Tratebas, the young man who was severely wounded on last Sa-turday night a week ago, at a bagnic on Ninthstreet, near Baymiller, died night before last, just one week after having received the injury. The curtain has fallen upon the last act of another tragedy, and sweet-eyed Charity, standing at the head of the victim, with her finger pressed closely upon her lip, entreats silence.

RESTAURANT.—The Burnet House Restau rant, under the eye of that excellent caterer, Billy Wilkinson, is already a fixed fact, and at all hours of the day and night is thronged with patrons. The novelty of having a res-"on call," without waiting an hour to have them prepared, is an innovation that the business man will encourage.

A Good Charce.—By reference to an advertisement in another column it will be seen that A. A. Kelley, at No. 28 West Fourth-street, offers rare inducements to those intending to buy books for holiday presents. He will sell his stock—made up of the finest annuals, standard works, albums, &c., at the lowest cash price, and give a present of jewelry with each book. Read the advertisement.

THE LATE CASE OF GRAND LARCENY BEFORE JUSTICE BELL.—Our issue of Saturday morning stated that warrants had been sworn out by Thomas Colscott, before Esquire Bell, against two men named J. K. Hancock and Jesse Fisher, charging them with grand larceny. Hancock was soon after arrested, when it appeared, to the satisfaction of Mr. Colscott and all others familiar with the case, that he was entirely innocent of the charge.

"GAME" TO THE LAST .- Notwithstanding the Dr. Cahill, of the Madison House, he stands up manfally to his multitude of visitors, and, just now, is trying to surfeit them on venison, qualis, prairie chickens and other such delicacies. His larder resembles a game depot, and every train replenishes it.

COLLISION ON A STREET RAILBOAD,-Persons have not yet learned to exercise their eyes when crossing Street Railroad tracks. A buggy, containing two men, was badly broken at the corner of of Seventh and Vine, day before yesterday, by coming in contact with a car on the track of the Cincinnati Street Railroad Company, but fortunately no one was seriously injured.

CONFECTIONERIES.—Persons wishing to furnish their tables in a first-class style for Christmas, can find the articles needed at Morris's confectionery establishment, Ne. 269 Race-street, between Sixth and Seventh.

NEW YORK, December 18.—The following is the latter of the Emperor Napoleon's Secretary to Messrs. Shaw, Mellotzy & Co., of Great Britain, on the relations between England and France:

"PALACE OF THE TULLERIES—TO Messrs. Shaw, Mellotzy & Co., Blackwall—Gentiemen: You have written to the Emperor to know what his intentions are as regards England. Great fears or great confidence should alone explain this step. On the one side you are possessed with an imaginary trouble which appears to have seized upon your country with the rapidity of an epidemic, and on the other hand you reckon upon the loyality of him from whom you desire a rapity. It was easy for yourselves, however, to give it if you had calmly examined the true state of your apprehensions. What cause you had duly found in all the rumors created by your reflow countryman by the obstinate propagation of the most chimerical alarms, because until now there was not a word or an act of the Emperor's which permits a doubt of his sentiments, and consequently, of his intention toward your country. His conduct, invariably the same, has not changed a moment to show his lightful and irreproachable ally that what he has been he will, I declare it to you in his name, continue to be.

Witness again the approaching community of perlis to be shared at a distance by your soldiers and ours. Great nations should appreciate but not fear each other. Receive, gentlemun, the expression of my distinguished sentiments.

within a few days, by the transaction of a crime of the most heartless character, in which a man, in clerical robos, was the perpetrator. The first ansouncement of the affair was made on Saturday thurch, on Saratoga-street, had absconded the night revious.

It appears that for for more than a year is crimina intercourse has existed between him and a hitherto respectable female of his congregation; but so slow are the people to make their spiritual advisers an object of suspicion and sogreat their veseration for the sacred office, that the matter was hidden in the breasts of the seducer and his victime, until further concealment became an impossibility, at which time he fed, leaving her to endure alone the bitter taunts of the world. He had used his spiritual position as a means of terror and coercion, until she, whom he had marked as his own, became the victim of his viles.
By his adroitnesse he has escaped the penalty of the law, but wherever he may fly he will ever sufferrom the poignant recollection of having brought ruin and desolation to at least one heart, to which it was his duty to admininister comfort and consolation.
